"The Light of Learning"

Foreword . . .

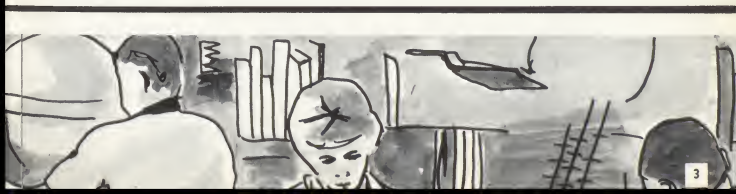

For many generations, philosophers and educators have discussed the elements of a "proper" education. While no absolute has been given, many ideas have broadened our concept of education. Frequently, new ideas of former centuries were considered radical when first presented. Time modified the reaction to these ideas, and today, many of these concepts have been incorporated into our present educational system. For example, early curriculums did not include athletics or clubs.

Yet, theory, no matter how solid it seems, must be applied to individuals—the students. As educational theory is put into practice, it becomes more than abstract thought. Cold abstraction becomes warm as it meets the personal aspect of education. One student cannot learn for another; one cannot think for another. The experiences of high school will also be recalled in an uniquely different way. Some students will remember a favorite teacher, a thrilling game, or a close group of friends as the most outstanding memory of their years at River Forest.

A yearbook can only capture a portion of the school year. The Ingot staff hopes that it has recorded many of the high points of 1964-1965 as it presents this volume . . .

Views of Education

—THE STAFF

Viewing River Forest

Four Years Can Seem

There's always something special about the first day of school. Groups of friends walk through the halls and up the stairs quietly. Expectation is in the air.

A lot of learning must be done. The Ingots settle down to the task of studying.

Capable instructors take the time to give that "extra"—personal interest and guidance.

"Education should be as gradual as the moon rise, perceptible, not in progress, but in result."

—George Melville

So Long and Yet So Short . . .

Where text books end, personal experience with our classmates continue our process of education.

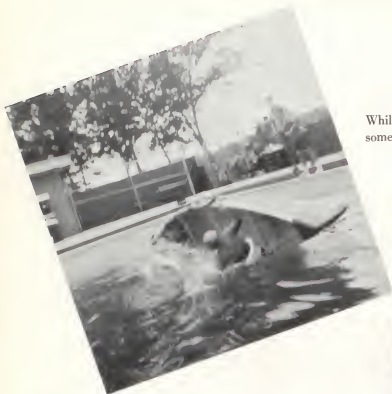

Yet, there's still time for a little nonsense . . .

. . . or a heated discussion about the merits of the Beatles, the Rolling Stones, or the Dave Clark Five, those British imports.

. . . As Twelve Years of Schooling

While the plunge into education is sometimes unexpected . . .

. . . friends, faculty, and family note our mental and physical growth as we strive to span the gulf of ignorance.

As the senior year becomes a reality, our thoughts shift to new responsibilities.

Come to an End

Although familiar classroom situations and personalities will become a part of memory . . .

. . . as we leave River Forest for the last time, we will view new vistas with excitement.

"Perhaps the most valuable result of all education is the ability to make yourself do the thing you have to do, when it ought to be done, whether you like it or not."

—Thomas Huxley

"The primary concern of American education today is . . . to cultivate in the largest number of our future citizens an appreciation both of the responsibilities and the benefits which come to them because they are American and free."

—James Bryant Conant

Administrative Staff

Directors of

Mr. Clark Johnston, Hobart Township Trustee

Mr. Edward B. Weisse has been the principal of River Forest since the school was erected during the 1957-1958 school year.

Mr. Benjamin Zalas, assistant principal for two years, is also the high school's athletic director.

"Institutions are the lengthened shadows of men."

Ingot Learning

Mrs. Doris Bartz has been secretary to Mr. Weisse for two years.

Serving the school as treasurer since its opening, Mrs. Eleanor Kekelik has regulated and balanced the flow of funds.

Mrs. Mildred Carlson holds the newly created post of teacher's clerk.

Mrs. Frankie Magnuson, Mrs. Walter Isakson, Mrs. Doris Johnson, Mrs. Mildred Matheny, Mrs. Jo Cauley, Mrs. Sylvia Hoover, Mrs. Lois Jolliff and Mrs. Dorothy Garland have the enormous task of daily preparing meals for the high school and elementary students of River Forest

Making Our Study Easier

Charles Layhew, Charles Scheuer, George Boby, Louise Kaczmarek, Irene Kaczmarek, Eugene Hollingsworth, Dick Julian, Bob Julian, A. J. Hensen, Elmer Hamann are the bus drivers who transport the Ingots to and from school.

Miss Mary Ann Herbert, is serving her first year as school librarian.

Mrs. Ruth Peters assisted the librarian as clerk.

Providing Our Needs

"A professor can never better distinguish himself in his work than by encouraging a clever student, for the true discoverers are among them, as the comets amongst the stars."

—Carl Linnaeus

Guiding Student

Mrs. Wanita Bailey is Director of Pupil Personnel and Guidance Services for Hobart Township schools. Aiding high school students in choosing vocational schools, colleges and other post-graduate employment, she works closely with business, trade schools, and universities.

Mr. Peter Sterling, a familiar face to all the past and present members of River Forest, schedules class programs for the current enrollment of 980 students.

Plans and Prospects

Dean of Students, Mr. Al Bromberg, checks the absenteeism of students. His major job, however, is to handle discipline problems when they arise. He still manages to give encouragement to many students.

In charge of student health is Miss Donna Kay Phillips.

The guidance department always seems to be in a frenzy of activity as they service the student body. Mrs. Lillian Semerau handles the correspondence of the department and serves as receptionist for Mr. Sterling and Mrs. Bailey.

Can Be Fun!

Physical Education is becoming more diversified in its scope at River Forest. Classes open to Freshmen teach basic skills in sports such as basketball and volleyball. More advanced students who wish to gain teaching skills may enroll in Leadership P. E. which develops fundamental camp skills. This year the class learned how to canoe, keep bowling scores, and prepared themselves to be cabin leaders at the Townships annual sixth grade camp held at Indiana Dunes State Park. Other students become assistants in gym classes.

Physical exercise is not the limit of the departments activity, for it also teaches about the body in the Sophomore Health and Safety classes.

Creativity is essential to art and music. The Fine Arts department develops the creativity of each of its members. The result is a piece of beauty. One results in precision harmony of vocal and instrumental tone, the other develops artistic harmony. Members of the Township have attended the annual concerts and art shows held by this department.

The business world is eager to have skilled workers in its employ. The business department tries to fulfill this need by giving practical training in office machines, clerical work, and providing work experience in the bookstore and main office to the commercial students. Another aspect of the business curriculum is the salesmanship and retailing classes which is directed to boys who plan to enter the professional business world.

This year the high school offered more language courses than many schools in Lake County, Indiana.

River Forest has a modern language laboratory in which students hear tape recordings of dialogues spoken by native peoples.

Spanish, French, German, and Russian are taught by the Audio-Lingual Method, commonly known as A-L M. Under this method, students listen to the sounds of the language—grasping sentence structure and intonation before they begin to read or write the language. This idea has grown in popularity because it is related to how we learn English—we hear the sounds for several months before the first “Da-da” is spoken.

Besides learning the language, the students make an effort to learn more about the cultures of the countries, through outside reading and trips.

Language Arts

Speech, dramatics, literature and English grammar are facets of the English department. Engaged in a cooperative program with Indiana University, the department has revised its literature program. Sophomores learn about the American heritage of writing, while the Juniors study the works of English authors. The seniors get an overview of major writings by studying world literature.

Another development in the English program is the teaching of the new grammar. This study enables the students to understand why and how our grammar is constructed. Students learn a new vocabulary as they study form and structure words.

Speech and dramatics is gaining in importance at River Forest. This year's speech contest was won by Mike Mullee. Dramatic presentations for the year were "Anne Frank" and "The Sound of Music."

The studying of the social sciences is a required part of the curriculum. Academic Freshmen are encouraged to take World History I and II which explores Western and Non-Western Cultures. All juniors and Seniors grasp the basic concepts of American History and government in their study of U.S. history, civics, and economics.

The newest addition to the department is the History seminar. Offered to accelerated students interested in history, this year's course was in Latin American history.

Whether in the stands, or on the floor, Ingots yell out,
"We want more."

"Let's Really Hear It, Now!"

Enthusiasm for Ingot athletics soared this year. One factor was the relentless and seemingly tireless persistence of the cheerleaders. More pep sessions were held and increased interest in away games made the chartering of fan buses possible. Miss Cynthia Sawyer, sponsor, aided the girls in perfecting new cheers.

The newest additions to the cheerleading fellowship were the Freshmen cheerleaders who are Linda Ragon, Micky Sue Lee, Rosemary Kresnocky, Barbara Irby, Sandy Millions, and Debora Ledger.

Spirit, sparkle, and syncopation make a lively appearance each time we hear the phrase, "Ready ho, let's go."

Mr. Vann Dann, played by Dan Olkoski, is disturbed by the antics of Anne Frank as dramatized by Jacque Trump.

In the picture below, the Franks, Vann Dannels, Meip, and Mr. Frank celebrate the new year.

"In Spite of Everything, I Believe . . ." Enduring Faith in "Anne Frank"

The teen years are a time of searching for ideals, physical change, and emotional turbulence. It is also a time when maturity is developed.

These conflicts are evident in the play "Anne Frank". Set in an attic room in Amsterdam, Holland, immediately after the war, Mr. Frank returns to the place when he and seven other Dutch Jews sought refuge from possible capture by the Germans. By means of the flashback technique, he reviews incidents of his family's life during the confinement. Anne Frank, a thirteen year old at the beginning of the play, is just beginning to seek her place in the world. With death a footstep and a knock away, tension runs high. Yet, Anne changes from a self-centered child to a more mature person.

Jacque Trump starred as the female lead, "Fiona".

"There must be an easier way to get that make-up off."

While "Jane Ashton", played by Jo Anne Simcoe, tries to capture "Tommy's" attention, Max Tabla as Tommy can only think of "Brigadoon".

Varsity Makes Fine Jamboree Showing, Captures Homecoming Victory

River Forest's 1964 football season with two wins, one tie and seven losses was another year in which the Ingots were pitted against top Lake and Porter County Conference teams. Although heavier on the line than ever before, the bench was not deep. Mid season injuries plagued the squad.

However the season was brightened by several highlights. Before the regular season began, River Forest engaged in two short battles with Chesterton and Portage. More than one voice acclaimed us the best team on the field as we defeated Portage and tied Chesterton.

Another highlight was our 20-13 homecoming victory over North Judson. Lonnie Minarich led Ingots on to victory. The Varsity's other season win was over Walkerton 46-0.

*Senior Squad Members

Although the Ingot's '64 football record was none too envious, the seven seniors pictured here were always in the fight. Had it not been for their stellar performances in aid of the Ingot cause, River Forest would have been winless for the second consecutive year.

Many of our football seasons have been lean in terms of Ingot victories, yet the squads have always been eager to play. Some of these senior players have been interested in gridiron play for many years. A few have donned the River Forest uniform for six years.

Varsity Players Have Steady Hands

The Ingots opened the regular season with a thrilling overtime victory against arch rival, East Gary. The team was on top of the 68-65 score. Another key victory came as the varsity topped the DeMotte Indians whose season record was 16-5. Other early season wins included Chesterton 71-55 and the hard fought game against Merrillville 68-62.

Ending the season with a 12-8 record, the Ingot scoring was led by the team's veteran players, Dewey Lemley and Jerry Erny.

In Gary sectional play, the Ingots drew the Lew Wallace Hornets who dealt the squad a nasty sting. In the heart rending match, the varsity was edged out by three points, 66-69. The Hornets played far better than their season record of 2-17. Behind each quarter, 20-16, 29-30 and 46-51, the Ingots valiantly tried to spark a rally. Moving up from a 12 point deficit, the team assumed leadership at one point in the third quarter, 61-60. As the fourth period began, our team was down by five. Hopes of winning soared, but time and personal fouls worked against the team. With less than two minutes of play remaining, Mike Pritchett and Jerry Erny joined Jim Phillips—who was already on the bench because of fouls. The gun sounded as Dewey Lemley lofted a two pointer, but the other needed points could not be mustered.

Two seniors paced the squad with their marksmanship. Dewey Lemley canned 26 points to be high scorer for both teams. Nick Demo earned 20 tallies.

Two Time Winner of Andrean Holiday Tourney

Ingot sports fans will recall the sweet taste of victory that was savored during the first Andrean Holiday Tournament in 1962. The fellows outscored East Gary 81-69 and then the host team, Andrean 57-50. The team composed of Krist Knolcheff, Mike Lara, Joe Parker, Bob Topper, Wayne West, Lewis Sink, Leon Gumulauski, Wayne Bernoska, Lee Courtney, Ray Oldham, Warren Ratcliff, was coached by John Newton.

Those familiar names and faces have been replaced by a new crop of talented lads, but their desire has been the same—to capture victories for River Forest. Coach Wilbert Logan guided this year's squad to victory in the holiday affair. In securing the victory, the players beat DeMotte and Andrean.

Junior Varsity Squad Wins .500 Season

Winning their last three games, the Junior-Varsity closed their season with a .500 average. The team had ten wins and ten losses. The J.V. team came in second place in the Andrean Tourney, being defeated by Gary Andrean in the final round. Pacing the J-V squad was Steve Disney, who led the crew in scoring. Close behind were Larry Hartley and Jim Kochan, who was the leading rebounder for the team.

Sometimes the Seniors are thoughtful . . .

Sometimes they try to follow sage advice . . .

Sometimes they are serious scholars . . .

They have watched their classmates during the high school years and have selected their favorites for . . .

Tops in Personality

Best Personality

Friendliness and a cheery disposition are a trademark of Mike Pritchett and Linda Demis.

and in Service

Best All-Around

Class leaders Debbie Pero and Bennie Newcomb have worked with much zeal to improve the Class of 1965 and River Forest.

Pace Setters in R.F.

Best Dressed

Bill Mason and Gloria Duarte always seem to know the latest styles and how to dress "just right".

Fashion and Beauty

Best Looking

Art Davis and Jane Urban coupled attractive features and good grooming to be voted "Best Looking" by their senior classmates.

Ingots Participate

Most School Spirit

Varsity cheerleading captain, Milena Nehring, agrees with Jack Parkinson, one of River Forest's leading enthusiasts, who says, "The Ingots are o-kay!"

and Boost Athletics

Lettermen's Club president Lonnie Minarich seems to be on the defensive against the "new" aggressive attack of G.A.A. president, Phyllis Holder.

These Couples

Class Wit

Perhaps your bicycle-built-for-two doesn't look like this, but Class Wits Barbara Ray and Dennis McDougall have decided that this is the 1965 model.

Steal the Show

Best Dancers

Will future generations remember the "frug" or the "swim"? Perhaps not, but Willie Skubish and Georgiann Davich will be remembered as the best dancers in the class of 1965.

Latent Talents Developed

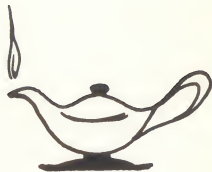

Most Musical

"Let me bend your ear". Although Ron Potrebic is enjoying his work, Nadine Humphrey is less satisfied.

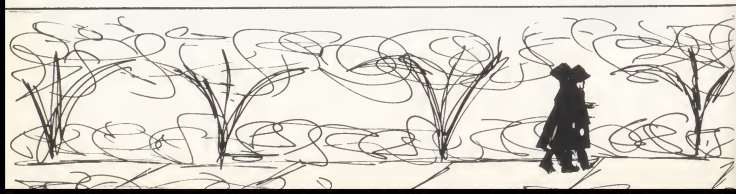

Through Education

"How about giving two folks a ride?" Jerry Erny seems to be seeking a ride from a friend while Linda Dembosky pauses in her reading of the paper.

"For iron Winter held her firm; Across her sky he laid his hand; And bird he starved, the stiffened worm; A sightless heaven, a shaven land . . . Now the North wind ceases,
The warm South-west awakes, The heavens are out in fleeces, And earth's green banner shakes."

—From "Tardy Spring" by George Meredith

Allegro

Tempo Quickens As Student Activities

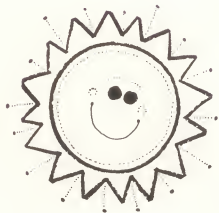

Even as the campus is covered by winter's blanket, the students think of the activities of April and May. Plans are made for graduation, the Prom, and Charity week.

The stirrings of activity begin with the start of the second semester in mid January. Students who have registered a high grade average are recognized as their names are listed on the Honor Roll list. Many seniors wait excitedly for notices of their acceptances to college or other types of employment.

The Juniors, meanwhile, increase their activity as plans for the Prom must be completed. Endeavoring to raise money for next year's prom, the Sophomores hold a candy sale.

Several speakers come to River Forest to expand the students scope of interest. From the Visiting Scientist program of our state universities, mathematics students heard Mr. Charles Nelson and the biology students enjoyed the opportunity of seeing a gila monster that belonged to Dr. Robert Cooper, Head of the Ball State Biological Department. English students learned of the research done by Dr. Henrietta Mertz who hopes to prove the geographical authenticity of Homer's Odyssey.

Time moves faster, or so it seems. Days are filled with a certain sense of expectancy. Soon one class will have graduated and the other three classes will be one step closer to their own graduation. In the meantime, there is a wealth of educational and social experience to be gained from the school's program of activities.

Telling Ingots Their Military Obligation

Armed Forces Day, February 12

Sergeant Artie Jay White, of the Marines, talks to Senior boys, A. Chaja, B. Weinegar, T. Nemtuda, D. Mutters, and T. Richardson, about the advantages of his corps.

Sergeant Edward Niles, Air Force, speaks to the Senior and Junior boys during the annual Armed Forces Day on February 12.

Representative of the Navy points out some of the requirements needed and advantages of joining his branch of the service.

Interested boys gather around Chief P.O. J. J. Schnoebelen of the Navy, asking questions pertinent to Navy life.

The Armed Forces representatives pose informally for a photographer of the Hobart Herald.

The faces of the boys reflect their interest as they assemble around the representative from the Army.

G.A.A. vs. Faculty Game

For the third consecutive year the G.A.A. met the women faculty. This year the girls emerged victorious with a score of 38-35, despite the play of Miss Cynthia Sawyer who scored the bulk of the points. She scored a total of 25 points for the faculty. Yet the G.A.A. quintet was able to halt the advances of the faculty. Key scorers for the Allstars were Phyllis Holder, Jackie Rogers, Martha Targgart, and Dana Pritchett.

Creating enthusiasm for the play were several fellows who added humor to the group as cheerleaders. Cheerleaders for the faculty were: J. Erny, Sr.; J. Parkinson, Sr.; J. Carden, Sr. Cheerleaders for the Allstars were: G. Erny, Soph.; F. Lee, Jr.; C. Burton, Fresh.; L. Hartley, Fresh.; and N. Waluszko, Fresh.

BOY'S AND GIRL'S STATE CONVENTION DELEGATES

Seeking to promote an interest in American government, the Indiana Branch of The American Legion and its Auxiliary sponsors Girls and Boys State on the Bloomington campus of Indiana University.

Local Legion Post 454 sponsored Pat Neill, Ron Hansen, Dave Addison, Lonnie Minarich, and Charlotte Shakula.

Recognizing Student Achievement

Twenty-six area high schools appointed members to the Lake County Youth Advisory Committee. The Youth Committee works with the Citizens Advisory Committee of the Indiana Youth Council.

The student organization sent 12 delegates of its committee to attend the Indiana Youth Assembly held in Indianapolis on May 1, 2 of 1964. Linda Dembosky, River Forest representative, was among this group.

The major achievement of the Lake County Youth group was the planning of a county-wide conference patterned after the state meeting. Five delegates at each school were chosen to discuss matters relating to "Youth and the Community." Members discussed topics dealing with school, community, and religious life as well as youth's relationship to government and the law.

LAKE COUNTY YOUTH CONFERENCE DELEGATES

Attending the daylong county-wide conference in October were Jackie Rogers, Martha Targgart, Marv Hutnik, Bill Mason, and Alice Allen.

PAGES TO THE STATE ASSEMBLY

and Outstanding Service

OUTSTANDING STUDENTS AWARD

The Optimist Club of Hobart awarded Linda Dembosky and Mike Pritchett plaques in honor of their service to the school during Youth Appreciation Week.

"The codfish lays ten thousand eggs, the homely hen lays one.
The codfish never cackles to tell you what she's done.
And so we scorn the codfish, while the humble hen we prize
Which only goes to show you that it pays to advertise."

In Closing . . .

Look to this Day

Look to this day,
For it is the very life of life.
In its brief course lie all the verities of your existence:
The glory of action,
The bliss of growth,
The splendor of beauty,
For yesterday is but a dream and tomorrow is only a vision;
But today well lived makes every yesterday a dream of happiness, and every tomorrow a vision of hope.
Look well, therefore, to this day.
